

I am very much a poponent of the do not call lists. I do not wish to receive unsolisted telephone calls. I pay my phone bill so that I may use my home and cellular phones as I see fit, the telemarketing industry has been allowed to invade the publics privacy for entirely too long.